DO YOU GET HOME MAKER AND OTHER LONG TERM CARE SERVICES SO YOU CAN LIVE AT HOME?

HERE'S IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO MAKE SURE YOU DON'T LOSE YOUR BENEFITS

The Department of Human Services (DHS) will be reviewing your continued eligibility for Medicaid Long Term Care services. To do this, they send you a Renewal Form with a cover letter that looks like this.

You need to:

- Review the form and write in any changes (or check the boxes for 'no change'). Provide proof of any changes.
- Sign the form.
- Return the form by the date on the letter*

MEDICAID LONG-TERM SERVICE AND SUPPORTS RENEWAL

(Katie Beckett Eligibility, Home and Community-based Services for Elders and Adults with Disabilities, Nursing facilities and PACE)

The eligibility of all Medicaid beneficiaries must be renewed every year. To renew your Medicaid coverage for long-term services and supports (LTSS), including if eligible through the Katie Beckett provision, we need to know if certain eligibility factors have changed in any way. These factors include:

If you do not send back the form (or the required information), you will receive a notice that your Medicaid will stop. You should get this notice at least 15 days before your benefits will stop. You can still return the form and any documents before the end of the month and keep your benefits without any break.

If your Medicaid is stopped, you can restart your benefits if you send in the signed form or information within 30 days. After that, you may need to submit a new application.

DHS recently started the renewal process and some people's benefits may have stopped at the end of February.

IF YOUR MEDICAID BENEFITS HAVE STOPPED – HERE'S WHAT YOU SHOULD DO:

Send in the signed renewal form and/or documents as soon as possible.*

If you don't have the form, call 415-8455 to have a new one sent to you. Your call will be returned within 48 hours. You can also call that number if you have questions.

RIPIN (270-0101) and RI Legal Services (274-2652) may be able to help.

*Bring the form to your local DHS office or mail to: PO Box 8709, Cranston, RI 02920
