

Am I experiencing a Qualified Life Event?

(Getting Health Insurance When Life Changes)

Hey.
Are things a little different?

Did you know that you can sign up for insurance with HealthSource RI anytime during the year if there are big changes in your life?

#getcovered and #staycovered

Yep

Nope

So, are you with child?

Yep

Nope

High five!

When the baby is born ...

Yep

Nope

Okay. Did you lose your job (and your health insurance)?

Ugh, sorry. But...

Did you turn 26 recently and lose your parents' insurance?

Yep

Nope

Happy belated birthday!
#getcovered

Did you just put a ring on it?

Yep

Nope

Mazel tov!

This is awkward... are you getting divorced—and losing your spouse's insurance?

Woot! You qualify for a special enrollment period. Go to HealthSourceRI.com to apply for health insurance!

Yep

Nope

Hang in there!

Phew.

But wait! There's more...

This graphic was brought to you by the cool health policy nerds at Families USA, a consumer health care policy and advocacy organization and a valued partner of HSRI.

If you want to learn more about how to get insurance, and how to keep it once you've got it, check out our other stuff at www.FamiliesUSA.org/tools and at HealthSourceRI.com/individuals-and-families/resources/.

Carry on, but don't forget about these special enrollment periods if things change for you. Check HealthSourceRI.com for any other changes that could give you a special enrollment period.
